

At Los Alamitos Race Course

Benefit Horse Show Slated

Seventh Annual National Benefit Horse Show, sponsored by the Long Beach Community Hospital Auxiliary, will be held at Los Alamitos Race Course on Sept. 8, 9 and 10 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. the three days. This show is a regular show member of the American Horse Shows Association, Inc. and is rated a "B" point show with Pacific Coast Hunter, Jumper and Stock Horse Show Association. There will be forty-two classes with first place trophies and ribbons in all classes, plus prize money in the stake classes. Included will be Hunters, Jumpers, Western Pleasure Horses, Tennessee Walkers and Shetland Ponies.

Equestrians from many sections of the southland will display their talents to help them accumulate points for a yearly total. High point national winner is given a special award at the annual meeting of the American Horse Shows, Inc. Beautiful trophies have been specially chosen by committee chairman, Mrs. Jack Stanley. Mrs. B. Wallace Neumaier, Palos Verdes Estates, who is a member of the Board of Directors of the Auxiliary and general chairman of this year's event is expecting a large number of entries and observers. Mr. Harold Dakan, of Santa Ana, manager, feels this show will again please both riders and spectators.

Helphands Home From Northwest

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Helphand and sons, Brian and Scott, have returned from a two weeks vacation trip in the northwest. They drove through central California to Sacramento, where they spent two days visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Gene Bevers, former Torrance residents. Their itinerary then took them to the coast, driving north through Oregon and Washington to Vancouver. They spent several days in Victoria and went on through Canada to Lake Louise and Banff before heading home.
